Honeymooning Queen and Duke Tour Portugal

LISBON, Portugal — Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh set out on a 200-mile motor tour of Portugal's scenic midlands and picturesque seacoast today. Forsaking the urban centers they visited in the first two days of their state visit, Britain's royal couple headed first for Nazare, a fishing village north of Lisbon where residents still wear plaids brought to Portugal by Highland regiments in the Napoleonic Wars. Today is the last day of the visit in which the handsome young royal couple have won the hearts of the Portuguese. Everywhere they have gone they have been surrounded by cheering crowds. Thursday they will fly home.

Turncoat Now Bored, Plans Return to U.S.

HONG KONG — The Communist Chinese Red Cross said today turncoat American Samuel D. Hawkins, Oklahoma City, Okla., will arrive in Hong Kong Feb. 27. Hawkins, 24, one of 23 American soldiers who chose to live in Communist China after their capture by the Reds during the Korean War, has been expected for several months to try to return to the United States.

HOWEVER, HE married a Russian girl in Peiping last year and his departure was believed delayed by indecision over whether to take her with him to Hong Kong. So far as British and American authorities here know, he will not bring his White Russian wife, Tan-

Disaster Preparedness Plan Formulated Here, Under Way

Carefully following a detailed blueprint for disaster, Palm Springs Civil Defense officials have completed the first major step in a comprehensive preparedness program. Civil Defense and Red Cross Disaster Committee members have credited a smoothly functioning communications network designed to swing into action in the event of a village power blackout. It is the first project to be charted in a disaster program calling for an organizational setup capable of handling food supplies, shelter, medical aid and transportation in any situation of natural or military catastrophe.

AS OUTLINED by Bert C. Brown, Red Cross Disaster Committee chairman and Civil Defense Coordinator, the city's emergency communication system is the result of more than two months of steady, day-by-day toil. The project was sparked by Civil Defense Director R. W. Peterson, Communications Committee Chairman Doak Davis and Brown.

Brown said the entire Palm Springs disaster program was born when it became evident that in the event of an atomic attack on Los Angeles, the desert area would be forced to bear the brunt of handling more than 600,000 evacuees.

THAT'S ONE reason, of course, natural disasters such as earthquake and flood were important considerations, but the emphasis currently being placed on Civil Defense by Washington lends credence to the importance of a preparedness program.

Which doesn't mean that anyone should fly into a fit of panic. "We want to be ready for any disaster, natural or military," Brown said.

HE POINTED OUT that Palm Springs can expect to play host to more than 100,000 evacuees from

Warning Issued On Fictitious Check Passers

Palm Springs police and sheriff's deputies today issued a warning to desert area residents to be on the alert for check passers who are using the firm names of Home Builders, Inc. and G. E. Wilson and Son, Cement Contractors.

Police Officer T. M. Aitken and Sheriff's Deputy Paul Lewis reported that three checks have been discovered recently written on the fictitious Wilson firm, and they have proven as fictitious as the Indian bank account on which they were written. Favorite name of the suspects is J. S. Miller, and only victims to date have been two dress shops in Palm Springs and one in Cathedral City. The two officers reported. More are expected today.

The checks have an authentic ring, they said, as the amount usually is $67.48, and a "check protector" is used in the process. Anyone who has been victimized, or who comes in contact with anyone wishing to cash a similar check in the future is asked to get in touch with either the Palm Springs Police Department or the Sheriff's office immediately.

ya, to Hong Kong. But he may seek a visa for her to follow him to the United States after he returns home.

A PAKISTANI newsman who visited Red China last year reported in August that Hawkins "has decided to return to the United States because of a boring life in China."

Hawkins joined the Army at the minimum age in 1949 after finishing high school in Los Angeles, where he lived for a while with his mother. He spent most of his life with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Slaughter, Oklahoma City.

He served as an infantryman in Korea and was captured by the Communist in November, 1950.

Highway, Junior College Topics Of CV Planners

Progress on Highway 111 future planning, together with the start of discussion of the need for a junior or state college in this area, will be discussed by the Coachella Valley Advisory Committee at its February meeting at 6:45 p.m., Monday, in the Indian Room of the Shadow Mountain Club.

Clarence Washburn, Indian mayor and CVAPC road committee chairman, will report on the study of the future of Highway 111. Since the last meeting of the complete organization, many communities and chambers of commerce have adopted definite stands on the Highway 111 planning, and the group will consider all of these in adopting its own policy.

The junior college establishment will be discussed by the CVAPC for the first time, according to President Ted Smith, although the Palm Springs Unified School District and the Coachella Valley Union High School have had the matter under study for some time.

Mrs. Machris is the largest donor to a current drive for additional funds to be used in the building of the new hospital additions.

THE DRIVE, headed by Major Rueben Fleet and the Women's Auxiliary of the hospital, has collected or been promised a total of $123,000 to date, leaving them only $2,000 short of their goal.

DONATIONS ALREADY received besides that of Mrs. Machris are from:

Mrs. Charles Dant, $5,000; Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilmore, $2,000; Major and Mrs. Fleet, $1,625; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thomas, $1,000; Mr. and Mrs. William Edris, $500; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Caulkins, $300; Henry Weinberger, $300; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Greenfield, $250; George M. Holstein, $250; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Black, Jr., $100; and Ed McCoubrey, $100.

Kemper, $1,000; Hawthorne K. Dent, $1,000; W. A. Moncrief, $1,000; Clark and Gilbert Swanson, $1,000; and Mrs. Zaddie Bunker, $1,000.

DR. MILTON PORTIS, head of the building committee for the hospital, said this morning that the "ultimate goal of the Desert Hospital is to have 100 beds and to provide all the medical needs possible for the visitors and residents of the village. We serve the entire nation at this hospital, we have the finest and will continue to keep up."

When the new addition is completed, the hospital will have a total of 64 beds.

IN THE ADDITIONS, the hospital will have a new x-ray room, laboratory, solarium-completely outfitted, surgery, and the bedrooms of the new wing will be donated by persons who give the hospital $5,000.

In regard to future plans, Robert Henwood, hospital administrator, indicated that the hospital will have a therapy room, and under discussion is a new wing to be subscribed by residents of Smoke Tree Ranch.

Police Warn Hotels, Stores of 'Con-Man'

Palm Springs businessmen were today warned to be on the lookout for a glib-talking con-man who, in the past two years, bilked local hotel owners to the tune of more than $400.

He was identified as Mortimer Charles Diamond, a bogus check artist also wanted by the F.B.I. for an illicit, interstate car racket. Police Chief August Kettmann reported today.

DIAMOND, WHO travels under an alias and is always in the company of his wife and daughter, aged five or six, was last seen leaving Santa Barbara Feb. 15 and is believed headed for Palm Springs.

Often posing as a refrigeration engineer, Diamond charges hotel services, paying off with fictitious checks. He also buys new cars with the same brand of bogus bank paper, transports them across the state line and sells them for cash, the F.B.I. reported.

Satchmo Bombed, But Not Scared

Comments Horn Doesn't Know 'Race Troubles'

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Negro trumpet player Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong refused to interrupt his southern tour today because of a racial bombing targeting his concert here Tuesday night.

"I've been playing the horns for 44 years and never had any trouble before," Satchmo said, commenting on the blast set off outside the auditorium in city-owned Chilhowee Park.

ARMSTRONG WAS bearing down on his "Back O' Town Blues" when two or three sticks of dynamite exploded outside, sending a shock wave through the segregated auditorium jammed with 2,000 white and 1,000 Negro jazz fans.

There was a stir. Many heads turned toward the direction of the earth-shaking explosion, which tore a five-foot hole in the ground outside. But it did no other damage and no one was hurt.

THE ARMSTRONG instrumental ensemble did not miss a beat and Satchmo himself stopped blowing his trumpet only long enough to say "It's O. K. folks. It was just my telephone ringing."

The concert of Armstrong favorites such as "I Got Ideas" and "Lucky Old Sun" continued for 20 more minutes. The troupe left immediately afterward by chartered bus for Columbia, S. C.

ELI WEINBERG, a show promoter from Bluefield, W. Va., said Armstrong will not let the incident shorten his southern tour now in its third week.

Armstrong, wearing a dark blue suit with white buttons and a black four-in-hand tie told reporters afterward, "I feel like I could go right to Birmingham and play-I don't believe we'd have any trouble."

NEGRO SINGER Nat King Cole was assaulted on the stage of City Auditorium in Birmingham, Ala., a year ago by white segregationists campaigning against mixed musical performances.

Armstrong was asked whether he realized Knoxville is only about 20 miles from Clinton, Tenn., where dynamite damaged 30 Negro homes last Thursday night in a recurrence of school integration demonstrations.

"What's Clinton?" Armstrong said. "I'll blow anywhere. The horns doesn't know anything about these race troubles."

THE WEATHER

Desert Area Forecast: Considerable cloudiness today through Thursday. Locally windy afternoon. Little temperature change. Highs today 60-70 upper valleys, 70-78 lower valleys.

High yesterday was 76, low 47.

JAZZ OR SYMPHONY, fine music is still fine music, according to Lawrence Crossley, left, who this week handed Dr. Benjamin Goldberger a $100 check for purchase of films on stars of the concert stage for the music appreciation committee of the Palm Springs Unified School District. The films will be shown March 5 and 7 at the Jewish Community Center. (Desert Sun Photo).

Ex-Basin Street Blues Man Donates $100 for Music Films

Trust an old Basin Street man to have an ear for fine music.

So Dr. Benjamin Goldberger remarked when he accepted a $100 check for the music appreciation committee of the Palm Springs Unified School District from Lawrence Crossley.

THE MONEY WILL be used to build a library of film of celebrated stars of the concert stage for the school district.

Crossley, of Tramview Water Company and Crossley Tract, said he appreciated "the city's need for fine music" when he handed the check to Dr. Goldberger, committee chairman, this week.

Crossley, who has lived here since 1923, is a one time New Orleans jazzman.

FIRST SHOWING of music films obtained by the committee is scheduled for March 5 and 7. Film masterworks programmed include Artur Schnabel, Jascha Heifetz, Gregor Piatigorsky, Jan Peerce and Nadine Conner, and the New York Philharmonic Symphony, Dimitri Mitropoulos conducting.

Contributions for the showings, each scheduled for 8 p.m., are $2, which entitle the donor to tickets. They may be made at The Desert Sun office, 174 North Palm Canyon Drive, or with members of the Parent-Teachers Association.

Highway Zoning Hearing Planned

Restricted Highway 111 commercial zoning, designed to prevent encroachment of "undesirable development," will come up for public hearing before the County Planning Commission within the next 30 days.

The commission yesterday ordered the hearing for "protection" of property stretching from Rancho Mirage to Cathedral City, and any other unrestricted segments of Highway 111 between Indian and Palm Springs.

Commissioner L. C. Lewis, of Cathedral City, asked for consideration of zoning change from C-1, unrestricted commercial, to C-P, commercial permit.

The latter requires developers to approach the commission and provides for public hearing proposed developments.

Some opposition to the plan came from Commissioner John M. Rose, of Corona, who felt that property owners who would be affected by the zoning be given a chance to express their desire for the restrictive zoning.

Building plans for the new Palm Springs Boys Club came up for approval at 8 a.m., Friday, when the club's board of directors will meet at the Springs Restaurant.

Directors will discuss construction plans for the club's polo grounds site, which was handed the club by the City Council. Club officers said they would announce the building program following the meeting.

Judge to Rule On Sinatra Plea

HOLLYWOOD — A Superior Court Judge was expected to decide today if singer Frank Sinatra can question five officers about the method they used in serving him a subpoena to appear before a state Senate interim committee headed by Sen. Fred Kraft (R-San Diego).

A petition asking to question the officers was filed Tuesday by Sinatra's attorney, Martin Gag, who said process-servers broke into the crooner's Palm Springs home early last Saturday to hand him a summons in connection with the Marilyn Monroe-Joe DiMaggio divorce.

Radio, TV Talk Follows Conferences

President, Congressional Leaders Confer

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower conferred with congressional leaders on the Middle East crisis today and the White House announced he would make a nationwide radio and television address tonight to discuss "the present situation."

The President will speak at 6 p.m. PST for a half hour. The speech will be carried live on CBS radio and TV, ABC radio and TV, NBC radio, and MBS radio. NBC TV will carry a filmed version at 7:30 p.m. PST.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty refused to say whether Mr. Eisenhower would discuss sanctions against Israel in his talk.

PRESIDENT Eisenhower and his top foreign policy aides met for more than two hours this morning with congressional leaders who overwhelmingly oppose sanctions against Israel.

The President and his advisers, including Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., outlined administration policy to the 26 House and Senate leaders from both parties.

SENATE GOP Leader William F. Knowland, who has taken the lead in protesting sanctions against Israel, declined to give details of the meeting, saying "it was a full and free discussion and an exchange of views. No final conclusions were reached."

Hagerty issued his statement after the meeting, at which the congressional leaders said the U.S. attitude toward sanctions was not resolved one way or another.

Hagerty said the President would "talk on the present situation in the Middle East," and on Israel's refusal to withdraw troops from Egyptian territory.

MR. EISENHOWER met with House and Senate leaders of both parties at the White House in what Secretary of State John Foster Dulles described as an "open-minded" discussion of the sanctions issue.

An advance United Press survey showed that of the 20 members of Congress invited to the conference, 13 have declared themselves against sanctions, two tend to oppose them and five have not committed themselves.

Florida Suffers With Rain; Snow Hits Midwest

By UNITED PRESS
Cold air poured out of Canada and covered most of the nation east of the Rockies today, lowering temperatures to the 30s in the Gulf states.

Snow continued to fall over the northern plains and into Minnesota extending southward to the Oklahoma border. Temperatures dipped overnight from Wisconsin to Montana.
Colder air pushed into the Northwest and brought snow over Washington and Oregon and rain pushed into Northern California.
Snow flurries and showers were scattered over Arizona and New Mexico. Cloudiness continued in Southern California although there was some sunshine in desert regions.

Marines Turn 'Jesse James,' Not Successful

SAN DIEGO AP—A daring robbery attempt by two recently discharged Marines aboard a Santa Fe passenger train Tuesday night panicked travelers into handing over their money before the bandits were taken into custody.
Vernon Pigge, 20, Los Angeles, and Melvin Dickson, 17, Phoenix, were taken into custody by Santa Ana, Calif., police when a train conductor radioed officers to meet the San Diego to Los Angeles train.
The pair was booked on strong-arm robbery charges, then turned over to San Diego officers and returned here.
Santa Ana officers said no weapons were used or found on the suspects. But witnesses quoted the pair as saying "You'll never get off this train alive unless you give us some money."
The suspects apparently tried without success to sell wristwatches to several of their fellow travelers, who also were recently discharged from the Marine Corps here and were homeward bound.
The conductor told police a woman passenger handed him a note saying she heard one of the suspects demand money from a passenger.
The suspects denied all accusations.

DISASTER

Los Angeles if disaster strikes. Furthermore, any disaster of such proportion can be counted upon to sever the city's one thin thread of power from Riverside.
The disaster chairman and his co-workers felt in view of these facts, the three most important phases would be communications, transportation and food supply. Each is being tackled consecutively.
First to be completed, the communications phase involves a radio network able to blanket the entire Palm Springs area. Key factors in the system are the city's contractors and merchant's patrols, which operate radio communications on their own independent power.
MOBILE, TWO-WAY radio equipment and operators will be furnished by Massey Rock and Sand Company, Hicks and Allred, Deason and Company, Press Construction Company, Valentino Detective Agency, and Palm Springs Fire and Police Departments.
Each company will, in the event of a disaster alert, dispatch radio-equipped units to a central disaster headquarters at City Hall. Other units will be sent to key sites, such as food supply centers and emergency medical centers.
EACH COMPANY group will operate on a separate frequency and will dispatch their units to needed areas as fast as calls are flashed into headquarters.
"We can now set up our entire disaster communications in one hour," Brown asserted. "But, there's more work to come."
Currently under way is programming of food supplies. Brown pointed out that the Village, with no food warehouses within miles, has only enough available supplies to feed the city about 10 days, under normal conditions.
"We expect to have that program all plotted in another week," he reported. "Then we'll tackle the rest."

Hungarian Refugees Learn Escape Thrill Does Not Last

LONDON AP—Eighty-two Hungarian refugees living in a hostel in Newcastle, England, rioted and went on a hunger strike.
Five Hungarian refugees staged a sitdown strike at Pershore demanding $33 a week instead of $21 as laborers.
Refugees in a Swiss camp are demanding television sets, radios and cars "because this is in accordance with your high living standards."
THREE HUNDRED refugees fled their camp in France and trudged 30 miles along snowbound Alpine roads to Switzerland. They were turned back.
Two refugees walked out of a camp in Scotland and made their way to London: They begged the U.S. embassy to send them to America.
Thirteen Hungarian refugees ran away from a government mining school near Johannesburg, South Africa, fearing they were headed for "slave-labor" in Soviet-style uranium mines. They were victims of a cruel joke.

THE ELECTRIC thrill of the escape of 170,000 refugees from Hungary is over.
With the flush of escape at risk of death behind them, the tumultuous welcomes and the big hand-outs of food and clothing gone, the majority of refugees in Europe are dispirited, disappointed and disgruntled, a United Press Survey shows.
GEORGE FREI—that is not his real name—a refugee Hungarian journalist now in Britain says: "There is ever-growing unrest and a feeling of discontent among Hungarians living in the camps."
"This feeling comes from their own conviction that their fight against Communism meant a moral victory for the whole free world. The fair-minded Hungarians, and the majority are of this type, are not demanding super-rights. But they expect a well-deserved human life in a free society."
THOUSANDS OF Hungarian refugees in Europe want to push onward to the promised lands, the United States and Canada. No one can tell them when, if ever, they can go.
Refugees in Britain complain that professional men are doing menial physical labor, that they were better paid in Communist Hungary. They hesitate to take jobs in Britain for fear it will hurt their chances of going to the new world.

Sheriff's Deputies Utilize Marked Bills, Catch Suspect

Using a $10 bill and another dollar as bait, Sheriff's Deputies Paul Lewis and Don Gorman Monday night solved a series of burglaries at Miracle Hot Springs pool in Desert Hot Springs.
Arrested was Joseph August Strmiska, 49, of Desert Hot Springs Trailer Park.
The series of thefts started Feb. 2 when a wristwatch was taken from the clothes of Edward Froland of 1862 South Palm Canyon Drive while the owner was in the hot mineral pool.
ON FEB. 16 another wristwatch theft occurred, this time from the clothes of Louis L. Bagley of Los Angeles, which also were left in the men's dressing room.
A suspect was arrived at by deduction as to who had been at the pool. On Sunday night this same person was there, and Lewis was there watching, but no attempted theft occurred, so the plan of marked money was decided upon. Serial numbers of the two bills were recorded in the Banning sheriff's substation, and when a call came that the suspect had returned, Lewis and Gorman went to the pool.
GORMAN WENT into the pool, leaving the marked money in his clothes. Lewis remained outside the area to watch when the suspect left.
When the suspect left the pool, Gorman remained in just long enough to assure that he had dressed and left the room. Then he checked his clothes and discovered the money missing. Both Gorman and Lewis stopped Strmiska as he was leaving the parking lot, and discovered the bills hidden behind the car seat.
LATER, CHECKING his trailer home, they found the two wristwatches and $4 in cash which the suspect admitted he had taken. Also there was kitchen sink taken from the yard of Eva Stone of Desert Hot Springs while he had been employed by her.
Appearing in Judge Eugene Theriault's Judicial Court yesterday, Strmiska admitted the allegations, three counts of burglary, and was bound over to trial in Superior Court in Indio on Friday, March 1.

The washathon operated from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., with pickup and delivery service conducted in the afternoon by school faculty members.
The "Smoke Signals" staff offered its thanks to all agencies who participated in promoting the successful car wash.

Lumber Leader, Vacationing Here, Calls for Budget Cuts

A spokesman for the nation's lumber manufacturers, vacationing in Palm Springs, today called on President Eisenhower to re-vamp his proposed $71.8 billion budget for fiscal 1958 and "return to old-fashioned, common-sense economy."

In a letter to the Chief Executive, Walter M. Leuthold, of Deer Park, Wash., lumberman and president of the National Lumber Manufacturers Association, asked that President Eisenhower "postpone or eliminate some of the less pressing programs" listed in the budget.

THE CONTENTS of the letter were released to The Desert Sun from Thunderbird Country Club, where the Washington executive is currently vacationing.

Noting that the budget total is a record pre-emptive figure, Leuthold called attention to the fact that both Treasury Secretary Humphrey and ex-President Hoover have warned of a possible depression if federal spending continues to increase.

"At the same time, you, Mr. President, have stressed the need for businessmen and unions to help check inflationary pressures by exercising restraint in their price-wage policies," Leuthold wrote.

LEUTHOLD TOLD the President he could expect full support from the lumber industry, an "important area."

However, he warned that "our action, and the action of other industries, will have little effect if federal spending continues pyramiding."

"The warnings of Mr. Humphrey and Mr. Hoover—and your own invitation to Congress to make selective reductions in Administration spending plans for fiscal 1958—clearly indicate that we have reached a danger point in our fiscal policies," he stated.

LEUTHOLD POINTED out that "it is time to about-face," and urged the government to make practical use of the "do-it-yourself idea." This would save millions in unnecessary overhead expense, he asserted.

The lumberman lamented the development of a false concept, in which all problems must be turned over to the federal government for solution—indicating "that private initiative, individual responsibility and sound principles can no longer meet our requirements."

Accenting the latter, Leuthold upheld the belief that adherence to the fundamentals and principles of competitive enterprise would provide the best and most lasting solution to "our social, economic and world problems."

HE DECLARED that demands for more government aid, interference, or "paternalism" should be discouraged and "old-fashioned, common-sense economy" restored. "Although our industry would be the beneficiary of some increased appropriations," he added, "we feel that in the national interest, we should forego the advantage we might gain from larger appropriations."

Leuthold said these views have been communicated to the House Appropriations Committee.

City Studies Gas Rate Increase

City of Palm Springs this week received notice of the application from the Southern California Gas Company requesting a general increase in rates.

The administration will study the application and make a report on it to the council. Action, if any, will be taken by the council at its next regular session.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Subversion of Self-Government

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Senator Gore's subcommittee report on election expenses has now been out long enough to earn a public opinion rating, which is, in two syllables—ho-hum.

It seems that the known campaign cost went around $30 million and that the Republicans outspent the Democrats two-to-one. If you want to estimate the hidden figures, the total cost may have gone to $100 million. And since the unions can learn more manpower against the doorbells, and can use more legal loopholes than the corporations, it's probable that the man-hour expenditure of the two parties wasn't far apart.

ACADEMICALLY, THE Gore report is interesting. As a box office attraction, it is a turkey. Nobody cares. The 1956 election turned out the way the people wanted it to. It started as a pretty fascinating contest for a number of reasons, of which money was never one.

Until Oct. 1 there was legitimate reason to believe the issue was in doubt. But by the middle of the month Candidate Eisenhower had made some public appearances and his bandwagon had started to roll.

In the second half of October Candidate Stevenson commenced to take himself apart. I had some late-October phone calls from Texas, which I had tipped for Stevenson, and was told that the H-bomb speeches had sunk him without a trace. From then on it was only a question of by how big a margin the Republicans would win the national ticket, and by what margin the Democrats would carry Congress and the governorships.

MONEY FAILED to save Republican Senate candidates in Washington, Oregon and Idaho. It failed to hurt Republican candidates in Connecticut, Maryland and Kentucky. The people, as usual, did as they chose.

But if Congress is looking for examples of where people are forced to do otherwise than as they choose, I have some suggestions. In this same 1956 election, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey lent his name to a fundraising committee for the reelection of Senator George Bender. There were some groans (to which some of us didn't pay enough attention at the time) from Ohio businessmen who felt (at least, they thought so) which collects the income, excise and corporation taxes, and which sometimes falls with heavy accusation upon the shoulder of an alleged tax-delinquent. Rightly or not, many businessmen who did not want to support Bender felt they'd better do what Secretary George Humphrey desired.

THIS IS CALLED "government duress," and it didn't happen for the first time in 1956. The Court House, the State House and the White House throw their weight into every election, and this may not be a bad thing. It is an influence for continuity and against change; for evolution and against revolution. But if a Congress committee sets out to study election influences, it can't play down the question of government duress, which is more important than campaign money.

Federalism, in fact, is with us always, in election season and out. In the matter of forcing Americans to act against their wills, the Gore committee ought to investigate the President's Committee on Government Contracts.

This Federal agency, headed by Vice President Nixon, exists for the single purpose of compelling people to do what they wouldn't otherwise do. The avowed purpose of CGC is to establish by government duress a "fair employment practices" system which Congress has many times declined to establish by law.

THE PRICE OF a Government contract today is a pledge not to discriminate because of race, color or creed. Since 85 per cent of American business does some business under Government contract, the duress has the effect of a national FEPC.

You may say as a generalized proposition that equal opportunity among working adults is not a bad thing. But, if so, the legislatures and Congress have plenty of chance to write the proposition into law. It's characteristic of government duress that it's performed under the cloak of legality. Citizen Humphrey was within his rights to support his candidate. Undoubtedly the Eisenhower Administration thought the reelection of George Bender was a bad thing.

IT'S THE HISTORY of powerful governments that their duress eventually gets to be pretty arbitrary. King David set his eye on a soldier's wife, Bathsheba; President Truman made a pass at those steel mills.

The sophisticated American electorate is no longer horns-woggled by campaign propaganda. Today it takes subtler forms of coercion and corruption to overcome our will to self-government—like a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury; or a phone call to your office from the Vice President of the United States.

The Desert Museum
Is a Village bright spot.
For needed expansion
Contribute a lot.

Palm Springs isn't face-slapping, fights over poor telephone service, debates over this and that. But because that's the material that makes headlines, it's fed to the newspaper reading populace in other places.

There are many interesting things in Palm Springs, besides the weather, many institutions doing a great job. Their work is rarely sensational, so goes unnoticed by the headlines writers. Except, of course, in The Desert Sun.

AMONG THE VILLAGE institutions providing entertainment and instruction on desert lore for our many visitors and Villagers is the Desert Museum.

It is now in the midst of a campaign to expand to meet the constantly growing demands upon it. The Desert Museum in Palm Springs annually attracts more visitors than any like institution in the Southland. Last year more than 50,000 persons passed through the building which is wholly inadequate for such throngs.

SOME YEARS ago I wrote something in one of these pieces about the many attractions of Palm Springs. A short time later I received a letter from a columnist on a large Chicago newspaper.

He agreed that Palm Springs is a great place in which to spend a vacation or to live but added that I could have devoted the entire column to the Desert Museum.

He wrote that he and his party, here on a visit, found the Museum the most interesting spot in the Village and wondered why it was not in a larger building. "Palm Springs has something there and should give it greater support," he said.

Dr. C. E. Smith, curator, is doing a great job with what he has to work with in making the Museum one of the star attractions of the Village.

The Museum needs and deserves your support.

ONE OF THE MOST aggravating things in traffic is to finally locate a parking spot at the curb. But as you stop, prepared to back in, the driver behind comes up bumper to bumper so you can't back, and starts honking his auto horn.

Which reminds me that in Moscow they passed a law prohibiting horn blowing, last August. Since then, Moscow's traffic chief reports, automobile accidents have been reduced 10 per cent.

Are the Russians beating us? WAS MUCH IMPRESSED by the arthritis fund campaign via telephone last Sunday. They reported $103,000 raised in 10 hours with top entertainment.

The entertainers not only worked so hard to put it over, aided by the southland's biggest business men, but also chucked in $1,000. Contributions came from everywhere but none from Palm Springs. We can't get channel 11 down here.

Floyd Odium, however held up the desert end. Besides plugging the drive via TV he presented a $5,000 check. Learned on the Telephone that Odium started the Arthritis Foundation eight years ago.

Virus Infection to Destroy Cancer

Recently investigators of the National Institute of Health in Washington, D.C., reported that at least three specific types of viruses had been developed that produced profound destruction of some types of human cancer implanted in rats.

Before this, it had been demonstrated that human cancer cells which were grown in tissue cultures could be destroyed by these viral agents. It was only after this original test tube experimentation that live animals to whom the cancer could be transplanted were used in the experiment.

IT WAS VERY important to determine that there could be grown in animals a uniform type of cancer cells from which viruses could be isolated. This has made it possible to examine in detail both the studies of virus growth and their destructive effects on cancer cells.

The type of cancer is that which comes from the surface of the skin and when transplanted into the abdomen of the rat grows profusely, especially where the rats had previously been exposed to radiation and cortisone.

IT WAS THEN demonstrated in 93 per cent of the rats inoculated that comparatively uniform tumor masses developed. In transplanting these tumors through a series of rats, three specific viruses were isolated which had the ability to destroy this type of cancer cell.

The peculiar situation concerning these three viruses was that originally they stimulated the growth of the cancer and later turned to the destruction of the same cells which they were responsible originally for stimulating into growth.

THIS DOES NOT indicate that all cancer is caused by an infective virus. It is however a further step in our knowledge of one type of cancer and the methods by which this special type may in the future be controlled. At the same time, it yields information as to a method of cancer cell growth which arises in the skin and is even now one of the most readily controlled lawless growths in the cancer family.

Spent a good part of Sunday with Noel Clarke at the Ranch Club. What he said and showed me may be of great interest to all of you.

This dynamic Clarke, about whom you sense as you converse with him that every word is grounded on solid rock and based on long experience, revealed that the golf course he and Joe Kirkwood plan to build will permit some of the hotels in Palm Springs to hand out guest cards for play on the greens.

THE FIRST NINE holes of the new golf course may be ready not long after summer has waned. There will be a beautiful club house and members of the Ranch Club will be permitted to use the golf course at a reduced green fee. How much hasn't been determined yet.

Total cost of the golfing plant will be around a half million dollars and, as the picture stands today, it will be the only 18-hole golf course within the city limits of Palm Springs.

BUT THAT WASN'T all Clarke and yours truly talked about. He took me for a ride to the mile square subdivision of his which he has been quietly developing for sometime now. You should have seen the homes—forty of them. Eventually this development will have 1,500 homes situated there. Clarke stressed one point which I was glad to hear, and that is that homesites are not being sold for speculative purposes.

"In one year, two or three years," said Clarke, "most of the people who have bought home sites plan to build. It is a steady growth out here, solid and substantial."

THAT'S THE KIND of music most people who have a deep and abiding interest in Palm Springs like to hear. I remember for many years there were lots after lots on many streets in this city which remained unimproved because they were bought for speculative purposes. There is nothing wrong with the purchase of a lot for ultimate gain and profit, but when homes are erected all about these empty and ugly lots over a long period of years—well, that's no good for the city, nevertheless, nothing can be done about that.

Anyway, Noel Clarke's development will not be completed in one year or two. He believes that it will take almost ten years before the 1,500 home sites show homes sitting upon them.

IN PASSING let's mention this fact about Palm Springs and what's doing here in the way of construction. During the month of January building permits representing $1,180,350 were issued by our building department, according to Jack Sanders. This picture showed that the City of Palm Springs surpassed the City of Riverside and placed our town in 12th position among cities in all of Southern California in new construction.

It was one of those delightful birthday parties—a small and congenial group with the honored guest none other than Edgar Bergen. The party took place at Desert Air Hotel and seated around the honored guests were Mrs. Bergen, Dick Powell and his wife, June Allyson, Houndini Harry, the genial bartender out at the hotel, said that the traditional birthday song was joined in by many, but it was "Happy Birthday to Charlie McCartney with apologies to Edgar."

YESTERDAY I stepped through the door of the Kon Tiki and it struck me for the first time that one step across the threshold had transported me in fancy from the desert to some lush South Sea island setting. If you haven't visited the Kon Tiki see if you do not experience the same feeling. By the way, the food there prepared by Chinese cook is nothing but excellent.

And talking about Chinese, I heard this one the other day. A Chinaman was watching two of his countrymen engaged in fist-fights. They were going at each other with all they had. The observing Chinese turned to a companion and said:

"Those two have lost the power of reasoning."

EARL WILSON:

Jerry Lewis' $500 Haircut

NEW YORK—Jerry Lewis, the lone eagle, had his special Hollywood barber fly in to give him a special haircut for his Palace Theater opening—so the haircut probably cost him $500.

"But he got value received," a friend said, "he got two haircuts in two days."

Going it alone on Broadway did not throw him.

"I'm awfully glad to see so many people who couldn't get tickets to 'My Fair Lady,'" he said. He got front-row squatters Joan Crawford, Al Steele and TV m.c. Jack Barry to sing a little "Harvest Moon," and to Barry he said, "Your programs are wonderful—but never sing in public."

CRAWLING A LADDER to the boxes, he asked a woman to sing. "I can't," she said. He insisted—then after she did try, he said, "You're so right, lady, you CAN'T sing!"

Jerry had the hilarious Weire Brothers and the new Judy Garland—Eydye Gorme—on ahead. He referred indirectly to his split with Dean Martin in a special song, "I'll Go On My Way By Myself."

So Jerry had made it as a single on the toughest street. He says he's a ham. "So hammy am I," he said, "I went to the refrigerator for a glass of milk, a light went on—and I sang four songs."

FRANK COSTELLO, they say, is going to be freed from prison and sent to a private hospital where close friends can see him. His heart's been troubling him . . . Mrs. George Axelrod, wife of the producer of "Visit to a Small Planet" which just opened told me that her husband and Charles Lederer got up the money when other people lost faith in the show. "I told the cast," she said, "Don't worry about anything—it means nothing to us but the lives of our four children."

Jackie Gleason as a gag hired four actors, costumed them as Arabs complete with robes and sunglasses, and sent them into Toots Shor's at the busy lunchtime. Toots was blazing hot with head Arab presented a note saying "Take care of these people—they're good friends of mine" . . . he recognized Gleason's scrawl.

Babe Rrrroof, you prefer Mickey Mantle."

Taffy Tuttle loves Denise Lor's line at the Plaza Persian Room about the girl who landed a beau: "You see, she met this man accidentally . . . she went to his apartment" . . . WISH I'D SAID THAT: "There is only one thing wrong with those lush, curly Italian actresses," sighs Robt' Q. Lewis, "—most of 'em are in Italy."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: When a cop catches those tiny foreign cars speeding, he doesn't know whether to give the driver a ticket or a spanking.

Comic Jackie Kannon now gets $4,000 a week in Las Vegas, and was told, "You have promise—some day you'll be as big a name as Danny Thomas and as big a loser as Joe E. Lewis!" That's earl, brother.

VIEW THE NEWSWARM BUNK, MEALS
(Pilger, Nebr., Enterprise)

A Bolivian tourist threw a stone at Da Vinci's Mona Lisa painting at the Louvre Museum in Paris the other day, shattering the protective glass and chipping the paint on the elbow of the famous lady.

Police sources reportedly said the man who threw the stone was jobless and had no money and that he had no motive in flinging the stone at the priceless painting other than getting jailed through the cold weather.

In connection with this incident, it was revealed that none of the Louvre's masterpieces is insured because, its officials say, "they are irreplaceable—you just cannot put a price ticket on them." The museum's guards and policemen provide the only insurance against depredations.

As we read this, we are reminded that there are some among us who are willing to destroy our priceless heritage of freedom if it will only get them a warm bunk and regular meals provided by the state. Moreover, you and I and other people who value liberty above physical comforts provide freedom's only insurance against depredations. How alert are we to the dangers that threaten freedom today?

Blue Skies Village

By VIRGINIA DAVIS
On Saturday a Fried Chicken Community Dinner was held at Blue Skies Club House. Over 100 people were served.
On Sunday two full-length feature Technicolor movies were shown in the Blue Skies Club House. They were "The Naked Spur" with James Stewart, Janet Leigh and Robert Ryan, and "The Snows of Kilimanjaro" with Gregory Peck, Susan Hayward and Ava Gardner. Everyone who attended thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment which was provided by Lew Kerner.
Bing Crosby and Inger Stevens visited the Heaths and toured Blue Skies last Thursday. Miss Stevens is currently co-starring with Bing in "Man on Fire."

Mrs. "Noonie" Busse became Mrs. Joseph Hall on Feb. 14. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kent from San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Oren Wade of Balboa moved their trailers into Blue Skies last week-end.
Mina Gaylord and Beverly Ricono visited Las Vegas during last week.
The Riconos and the Graysons have just moved into their new 45 foot Safeway trailers and they are busy decorating them.
Many of the tenants of Blue Skies were shocked to hear of the death of Roger Andrews. He died on Feb. 4 after several months of suffering from cancer of the lung. His widow, Betty came to Blue Skies last weekend to prepare their trailer for sale.
The H. P. Laws have just returned from a trip to Mexico.

THE SAMEUL E. TERMANS, of Brentwood, center, turn to pleasant chit-chat after a delectable 9th wedding anniversary dinner at Bob and Andrea Leeds Howard's fashionable Palm Springs hostelry, Howard Manor. Others in the party are the Emanuel E. Meyers, of Glencoe, Ill., left, and Mrs. David Karlen, of Jacksonville, Fla., whose GI husband is currently stationed in a much colder place, Iceland. Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

I love songs with a melody . . . so when the KDES monitor speaking system brings "O, What a Beautiful Morning" inside the office . . . where typewriters are clicking, telephones ringing, teletype jogging along . . . and we're working by electric light . . . it doesn't make me think of Oklahoma . . . but of Palm Springs . . . and this gorgeous February weather . . . "I Love Paris in the Springtime" brings tears of nostalgia to my eyes . . . but I doubt if it's for Paris . . . which I've never seen . . . I think it's Palm Springs in the springtime . . . Tell me . . . who can get lyrical about the mid-west . . . or even about Paris . . . when they live in this enchanted Village . . . that's a mixture of all the dream places . . . Answer: No one . . .

A postcard from Buenos Aires . . . from Edith and Julian Barnberger . . . says they're enjoying South America . . . especially Buenos Aires . . . and that the weather is perfect . . . They fly from there to Santiago, Chile . . . and plan two weeks in Lima, Peru . . . before flying back to Rio de Janeiro to catch the boat back to New Orleans . . . They plan to be in Palm Springs about mid-April . . .

The Richard Widmarks and David Nivens are vacationing at LaQuinta . . . and Raymond Massey is arriving soon . . .

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Bennett of Vancouver B. C. spent their two weeks vacation at Desert Air Hotel . . . which has its own landing strip . . . They flew their own plane . . . a twin engine Piper Apache . . .

Sis Harrell is in Desert Hospital . . . and can't have visitors . . . but how about dropping her a note? . . .

Word from Marguerite Clatworthy . . . who went to Denver to be with Harry for his operation . . . is that Harry's recuperating nicely . . . and they hope to be back in Palm Springs around the first of the month . . .

Lois and George Wright are entertaining informally at a chuckwagon dinner at their Thunderbird home on March 2 . . . They have invited around 60 friends to meet their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Lyons Brown of Louisville . . . who will be here for a few days . . . Mr. Brown is chairman of the board of Brown-Forman Distillers of Louisville . . . and the Wrights frequently visit the Browns at Derby time . . .

There was a jam session at LaPaz's Spur and Sable room . . . the other evening . . . when Dan Dailey joined Frank Marocco trio and Al Anthony at the organ . . . That same evening Hopalong Cassidy and a party dropped in . . . and Doris James (400 pound of melody) sang "Rock and Roll Cowboy" . . . which has Hoppy in it . . . Doris received his personal thanks and one of those famous coins . . .

Poolside lunching at the Racquet Club . . . one recent day . . . were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coors of Golden, Colorado . . . The Coors are members of the famed brewing family . . .

Listen to Hildy Crawford Monday through Friday, at 11:30 a.m., on KDES, 920 on your dial.

Celebrate Birthday At Brunch

Guests were seated at a big U-shaped table Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Young of Hibbing, Minnesota, who are wintering at El Mirador, entertained at brunch at the hotel.

It had masses of icing roses arranged on its pale green top, and the sides of the cake were decorated with silver slippers. Poultry Is Low Caloried

If you're a calorie-counter, don't resign yourself to green salads and toast, said North Dakota Agricultural College poultry extension agent Irving Mork.

Instead, pass your plate for turkey and chicken—the ideal meats for people who have to watch their waistline.

Mork pointed to recently released information on the total edible portion of various raw meats. Turkey contains 207 calories per 100 grams; chicken 129 calories for every 100 grams.

The percentage of fat in poultry is much lower than in other meats, he said.

Twilight
Dansante
Popular

Sunday afternoon's Twilight Cocktail Dansante, sponsored by the newly formed charity group, Palm Springs Pathfinders, proved a social highlight of the week's entertaining. This sundown party assembled a goodly number of Palm Springs society with their houseguests and many visitors now calling Palm Springs home.

As the merry group danced to the tunes of Frank Marocco's trio and the playing of popular Al Anthony at La Paz, many specialty numbers were played and the gay crowd entered into the spirit of the afternoon fun.

Many extra donations were made during the party, as the Pathfinders project is to raise funds to assist Angel View Crippled Children's hospital in nearby Desert Hot Springs. Mrs. Austin McManus (first Lady of Palm Springs and Honorary President of the Pathfinders) donated a check to the worthy hospital group to start the fund rolling. Ralph Wilcox Taylor gave a sizable check for his door donation.

Through the courtesy of the Gordon Ayres of Arthur Murray studios here a dance contest was held with the following winning $25 gift certificates: Mrs. George Wheeler, Mrs. Henry Thornton, Mrs. Walter Braunschweiger, William Malouf and Jock Williamson. Mr. Thornton and Mr. Braunschweiger made $25 contributions to the Pathfinder fund in the amount of their wives' winnings.

Among those attending the gala twilight party were: Edwin Fallgrens, Edward Rothbarts, of Chicago who have leased a house here for the season; Walter Braunschweigers and their houseguests, the Graham Dibbles of Los Angeles; George Holsteins and houseguests, the R. O. Goulds, of Newport Beach; Glenn Austins, Berk Bannons, San Marino; William Maloufs and son, Gary, and houseguests, the Thomas Maloufs of Los Angeles; Merton Wades, Homer Hiltens, George Wheelers, William Crawford, S. P. Manasses.

Also present were: Dr. and Mrs. Henry Dollard, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Backstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Manseau, Mr. and Mrs. William Iverson, Mmes. Austin McManus, Zaddie Bunker, the flying great-grandmother; Noble Banks, Ben Gale, Dolph Obergfel, Eleanor Kane, Ann Gougler; Misses Teresa Fields, Marj Pohl and Winsome Courtney.

Many groups stayed on for dinner in La Paz's Spur and Sable room. Among those hosting tables were the Maloufs with five guests; the Edwin Fallgrens and Edward Rothbarts, a no-host group consisting of Mrs. Noble Banks, the Dollars, Thorntons, the Ayers and Franklyn McManus. Mr. Taylor of La Paz also hosted a group. Miss Teresa Fields had two guests at her table. Mrs. Frank Russell Payne, also a guest at the Pathfinder party, entertained her guests at dinner there afterwards.

John Warren and Curtis Roberts paced the Palm Springs High School Indians to a 66 to 48 victory against their traditional rivals, the Coachella High Arabs last night on the latter's floor as the Warriors displayed their best basketball of the season.

Warren racked up 29 points for his season's high and Roberts swished 13 points through the webbing.

HAD THE INDIANS played the heads-up ball they did Tuesday night throughout the season, the Riverside County League standings would be different, according to all who saw the game.

Instead the Indians will finish in fifth place this year. Last year they won the title. Last night they played in their 1956 form.

THE INDIANS jumped to an early lead and held it most of the game. The Arabs were close for a time and even held a one point lead in the third period. They blew wide open.

Half time score was 26-24 with the Braves ahead.

Besides Warren and Roberts, Sam Jones and Jackson scored 10 points each.

COACHELLA'S BEES whopped the local Bees 61 to 25 completing an undefeated season in the RCL, winning the title with ease with a 14-0 record.

Banning assured itself of at least a tie for the Varsity championship this year by downing Beaumont. They have but one game to go and hold a mark of 11-2. San Jacinto won last night, completing its season and has an 11-3 record.

The Indians wind up their season Thursday night here against Perris. Perris has not won a game so far and the Braves will be heavy favorites to wind up the season with a 6-6 record.

Other scores were:
57-25 Thomas Frank Bender, Ed Meyer, George Butterfield, Charles Ring, Paul Hodick, Sam Prentiss, Jack Alister, George Holsen, Walter Funniss, Glena Thomas, Fred Nicholson.

48-24 R. Kern, J. L. Yeaman, Gail Cave, Eddie Durrell, Dan Wray, Clarence Alt, Rod Funnish, Harold McAlister.

69-20 Dr. C. Graham, Henry Wheeler, Ralph Parker, Cy Carter, H. C. Pittenger, Frank Laupke, Norman Waters, Harold Cudney, Warren Dawson, Dr. P. A. Tucker.

60-20 Fred Duffer, Dick Cochran, C. A. Mickelson, Harold Bagby.

41-20 Donald Doud, Dan Gilbert, Lee Moran, Lew Wagner, C. A. McRoberts, Ken Todd, William Hyde, Meade Harjani, Ben Chandler, R. H. Fleet, Chase Garfield, D. P. O'Keefe.

160 Pros Warm Up for Houston $36,000 Tourney

HOUSTON, Tex. — Some 160 golfers warmed up today for the $36,000 Houston Open, which gets underway Thursday.

Peter Thomson, the three-time British Open champ who joined the winter tour here, shot a 5-under-par 66 to take low individual honors Tuesday in the $5,000 amateur meet which precedes the open. Thomson got $450 for his effort over the Houston Golf Club course.

The pro-am was held while 80 other aspirants, who were not exempt, were struggling to qualify for 50 positions in the open on its home course, Memorial Park.

Trailing Thomson for low honors were Ted Kroll, defending champion from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Canadian PGA titlist Stan Leonard, and Howie Johnson of Houston. All had 67's.

At 68 was Pat Schwab of Dayton, Ohio, who took $102 for that and an additional $250 for the team best-ball handicap score of 57.

Fullmer Calls Off Bout Due To Cut Optic

DENVER — Middleweight Champion Gene Fullmer has withdrawn from a 10-round non-title television match against Charley Cotton scheduled for next Wednesday night because of a cut eye, it was announced Tuesday night.

Promoter Joe Dupler said Ralph Tiger Jones, a well-known TV bout performer, will substitute for Fullmer in the Feb. 27 go at Denver.

Fullmer suffered the cut Monday night when he thoroughly laced Ernie Durante in a overweight, non-title bout which drew a gate of $24,145-largest in Denver boxing history.

The middleweight titleholder, who is to meet Ray Robinson in a return championship bout on April 24, returned to Utah early today and consulted a physician about the swelling gash over his left eye.

The doctor counseled that it was too deep to risk another fight so soon, Manager Mary Jensen said.

Noren Won't Take Slash in Paycheck

PASADENA — Outfielder Irv Noren, traded to the Kansas City Athletics by the New York Yankees, threatens to quit baseball unless Kansas pays him substantially what he had been asking from the Yanks.

Noren, traded Tuesday, pointed out he had returned two contracts to the Yankees when they sought to cut his pay by almost 25 per cent.

Plans Started For O'Donnell Club Tourney

Invitations went out this week to top amateur golfers in California, the northwest and east for the 22nd Annual Palm Springs Invitational Golf tournament, the daddy of them all in the nation's winter golf capital, at O'Donnell Golf Club.

Dates for the tournament are March 11 to 17 with a full week of play on the schedule.

THE HIGHER HANDICAP players will compete the first three days of the week with the Senior tournament slated for Thursday, March 14.

Championship flight will start on Friday and close on Sunday with 18 holes listed each day for a 54-hole total.

Harvie Ward, state champion, is the defending champion at O'Donnell's. He carded a six under par 65-64-64-193 in winning last year, defeating Dr. Frank M. (Bud) Taylor, three-time winner of the event, by five strokes.

IT WAS WARD'S SECOND O'Donnell Invitational title. Dr. Taylor had won three before.

Both have been invited to compete again this year against some of the best amateurs on the west coast as well as from the east.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK — When it comes to making trades, General Manager George Weiss of the New York Yankees still is making David Harum look like an amateur.

Weiss concealed his latest coup under sheer numbers. It was buried in the crush of a 13-man swap he announced Tuesday between the Yankees and the Kansas City Athletics.

George camouflaged it further with a brush of belligerency aimed at rival clubs which have accused him of making "farm clubs" out of the American League's tail-end teams.

"Let 'em find something sinister in this one," he challenged.

THEY WON'T HAVE to look too far in inspecting the transfer of pitchers Art Ditmar and Bobby Shantz, plus a future designate, for outfielder Irv Noren, infielder Billy Hunter and pitcher Mickey McDermott, Tom Morgan and Rip Coleman.

The 27-year-old Ditmar was the ace of the Kansas City mound staff last season and won more games for a last place ball club than McDermott, Morgan and Coleman won en masse for a world championship club.

Weiss ignored this fact and blandly assured one interviewer that the Yankee probably helped Kansas City by throwing in the weak-kneed Noren and Hunter who to date has been a $100,000 bust.

ON THE FACE of his record, Ditmar doesn't sound too impressive. His mark last season was 12 wins against 22 losses. But the 6-foot, 2-inch right hander is a lot of pitcher and suffered tremendously bad breaks.

The hot tempered New Englander who throws a fast ball, slider and curve with admirable control until he blows his stack and his aim-striffed 16 of those losses in games where the A's got him three or less runs. Five times, as he lost, the A's didn't get a run.

HE HURLED a one-hitter against the White Sox and shutouts against Detroit and Baltimore. He was the only pitcher on the A's staff to hit double figures in the win column.

The Yanks admittedly have been after Ditmar for two years and the fact that they landed him is certain to set the rest of the league fuming.

One of the toughest things he had to learn was to control his temper. When he puts on those Yankee flannels you can bet on one other item. Now he won't have as many excuses to blow his top and he'll have a few more runs with which to work. It could make him a big winner.

And Weiss, too, quite naturally.

Favor Pastrano 17 to 5 Tonight

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Heavyweight contender Willie Pastrano matches his speed against ponderous Johnny Holman's power to night in a 10-rounder that promises to make Louisville a regular stop on the television fight circuit.

Pastrano's speed of hand and foot made him a 17-5 favorite to outpoint the slower-moving Chicago heavy and thus gain a spot in a projected elimination series to select a mid-summer opponent for heavyweight king Floyd Patterson.

NEW YORK — American League rivals, led by Cleveland's Hank Greenberg, bluntly accused the Yankees and Athletics of engaging in syndicate baseball again today, but a defiant Casey Stengel blamed those same critics for "boycotting" him into his latest deal.

Greenberg, voicing his annoyance from the Indians' spring training site in Tucson, Ariz., was the most outspoken against the Yankees over the deal they made Tuesday with Kansas City.

"It must be great to have your own farm system in the same league," he snapped, obviously referring to previous deals between the same two clubs in which such players as Johnny Sain, Tom Gorman, Eddie Robinson, Enos Slaughter, Lou Skizas and Bob Cerv figured.

Crosby Buys Home Site at Silver Spurs

Realtor Tony Burke, agent for the Silver Spurs Ranch, announced today that Crooner Bing Crosby has purchased a 16-acre ranch site and will start construction of his home there very soon.

Crosby recently sold his home in the Thunderbird region and, according to Burke, will build a rambling stone and big timber ranch style house on the land which lies to the west of Palm Desert, next to the foothills.

Other well-known persons who have purchased home sites on the new Silver Spurs ranch include Randolph Scott, Phil Harris and Alice Faye. Their homes also are scheduled for summer construction.

In order to qualify for purchase of land in the Silver Spurs Ranch, Burke said, purchasers must become a member of the Silver Spurs Ranchers Association. The Ranch will have all underground wiring, a community pool, tennis courts, stables, and a pitch and putt course. The home sites range from small lots to many acres.

Adrian and Mercedes Schwilck are developers of the property, and approximately 500 homesites are contained within the Silver Spur Ranch area.

Sweepstakes Winner Tells Of Problems

BOSTON — (AP) — So you'd like to win the Irish Sweepstakes. Well, take it from Antonio Sena, this can have drawbacks.

Two years ago he was announced as a $138,000 winner in the Sweepstakes. After taxes, Sena, a Roxbury barber, netted $34,000.

He said that because he wouldn't give or lend them part of his fortune, many of his barbershop customers quit him.

Additionally, Sena's former wife asked the courts to increase the $25 weekly alimony he has been paying for her and their two children.

Sena said he still has $45,000 of his winnings in the bank. But he insists that capturing a major sweepstakes prize isn't all it's cracked up to be.

City to Support Three Measures In Legislature

Official action is scheduled to be taken by the City Council at its next meeting on at least three more measures currently before the California State Legislature.

They will support legislation on the dumping of trash on highways, as well as legislation on billboards along scenic highways of the state.

The city law makers have indicated that they will favor the use of "Parkey" the kangaroo as a symbol of the state cleanup campaign.

Burbank Man Named Chief Buying Agent

Joseph H. Cass of Burbank has been chosen as best applicant and candidate for the position of chief assistant purchasing agent, the supervisors were told this week by Clay Begole who serves as purchasing agent as well as county administrative officer, and Donald Spencer, personnel director.

Since Begole, as head of the purchasing department has the power to make the appointment, no action was taken by the supervisors.

BEGOLE AND Spencer said that pursuant to the order of the board Jan. 21, they contacted the ten top ranking candidates who had applied for the job a few weeks ago and had been screened by a special screening board, and interviewed the eight who responded and appeared before them.

Cass' experience extends over a period of 13 years in the purchasing department of the City of Burbank, according to Begole and Spencer. They said his ability is highly respected by those who know him and his character is excellent.

SUPERVISOR WILLIAM Jones said he is opposed to bringing in a man from outside when there is a capable person in the county. Jones and Supervisor Fred McCall, with Roman Warren when he was in office, voted for the appointment of Mrs. Jessie McAdams, assistant purchasing agent, but because of legal technicalities the appointment had no effect. Mrs. McAdams was one of the "top ten."

Jones declared "It makes for better county government when people working for the county have a chance to advance. Mrs. McAdams in my opinion has proved herself as quite capable."

"Just for example," said Jones, "there's Clay Begole. He used to be our board clerk, and we made him administrative officer. He is second to none in the state of California."

League of Cities To Meet Feb. 21

City councilmen have been invited to attend a meeting of the Riverside League of Cities at the San Geronimo Inn at 7:30 p. m., Thursday.

The League will discuss the current question of sales and use tax and its sharing by the cities with the county.

Aviation Gas Refund Received

Aviation and Fuel Gas tax apportionment to the City of Palm Springs was received this week and amounted to a total of $364.78. The money will be placed in the airport general fund.

Supervisors Again Postpone County Sales Tax Decision

After a lengthy discussion this week of the proposed city-county sales tax problem, with city officials and representatives of the farm bureau and grange in attendance, county supervisors failed to take any action and put off making a decision until after the Feb. 27 discussion with the Board of Equalization in Sacramento.

Some of the supervisors, including Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain and Supervisor Paul Anderson, plan to make the trip to Sacramento, and the City of Riverside has announced it will send two councilmen and the city auditor.

"I HOPE OTHER cities will send representatives and that there will be members of the farm groups and other interested organizations who will make the trip," said Chamberlain. "I think we should hold everything until we return from Sacramento. I will agree with whatever the Board of Equalization recommends."

Chamberlain's request for delay came after Beaumont's Mayor Coverdale urged board action so that the Riverside County League of Cities might have something definite to consider at its next meeting.

"WHY NOT ADOPT the much discussed split of revenues which would give the county 15 per cent of city-collected taxes?" asked the mayor. "The cities will then know where you stand and can determine whether they will or will not go along. Try it for a year and at the end of that time each city will know whether it can afford to pay more or whether it should pay less. San Bernardino County has adopted a ten per cent city-turnover-to-county plan."

SUPERVISOR FRED McCall revealed what he described as "Supervisor George Berkey's three million dollar thought," whereby cities would continue with their present sales tax as it is, and the county would adopt a county-wide one per cent tax covering cities as well as unincorporated areas. The result would be an increase in the present four per cent sales tax in cities to five per cent, and in the present three per cent sales tax in unincorporated areas to four per cent. Three per cent in each case is the existing state sales tax.

Several farm groups representatives said they thought the McCall proposed Berkey-thought has merit, but the majority seemed to feel that it would meet with considerable opposition from people living within cities. It was remarked, however, that if each supervisor would explain the plan to the people in his own district, it might be accepted.

A GREAT MAJORITY of those present at the session expressed the opinion that a county sales tax would be the fairest way to raise funds for needed county building in that it would put some of the burden on the non-property owners who enjoy the benefits of county services without having to pay property taxes.

They said that the sales tax paid by property owners would come back to them via reduced property taxes, taxes at least lower than they will be if the entire burden is put on property owners.

THE SUPERVISORS however, said they have never stated as a board, that they are in favor of a county sales tax. "I don't see why we keep bringing up a sales tax," "The board doesn't want it," "Let's drop the whole thing," said Supervisor Jones.

"The board hasn't yet indicated it wants a sales tax," said Supervisor Berkey, "but it is a problem to be faced. One thing is sure and that is that the Bradley-Burns Act was a lousy piece of legislation." Supervisor Anderson agreed but said he thought the door should be left open.

County Board Opposes Justice Court Combining

Following presentation this week of letters from the San Jacinto Valley Chamber of Commerce, City of San Jacinto, and Parris Valley Chamber of Commerce expressing opposition to consolidation of justice courts proposed by the 1956 Grand Jury, the county supervisors went on record as opposed to such consolidation at this time.

"We believe the Grand Jury did not investigate deep enough before it arrived at its conclusions and that the proposal is based on superficial examination," said the San Jacinto city council. "They said it would be necessary to put an additional man on their police force if the court was moved. One man is now on duty at all times. If he had to journey to another location for court sessions it would be necessary to have a second policeman."

MERGING WOULD bring delays and necessitate considerable travel on the part of those bringing claims and those against whom the claims were brought and would discourage use of the justice court as small claims court, as the San Jacinto Valley C of C sees it. The Parris Valley C of C expressed deep concern and opposition to the Grand Jury recommendation of merging justice courts in the areas of San Jacinto, Hemet and Parris. They said it would increase costs in pursuing small claims, would inconvenience witnesses, and require unnecessary travel, and additional police officers in transportation of prisoners.

OTHER CONSOLIDATIONS recommended by the Grand Jury are San Geronimo and Beaumont districts, and the districts of Murietta and Elsinore.

SUPERVISOR WILLIAM Jones commented that Grand Juries have been recommending consolidation for the past eight years but said all the people he has talked to are against it.

Third Artist On Program Is Grand Piano

The Bosendorfer piano, which will be introduced to Palm Springs by Adolph Baller at his concert with Gabor Rejto, cellist, on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Feb. 24, at the Jewish Community Center, has been termed a third artist on a program.

Hal Garrett in the San Francisco Chronicle wrote of the Bosendorfer: "Actually there were three artists on the program. One of them was three legged. The grand piano deserves a word. It was hand made in Vienna and shipped overseas last June. The interesting things about this instrument are its singing tone and its aliveness. Its quick response to the lightest touch may usher in a new era of piano playing — some centuries hence when there are men to supply the demand."

"The Grand was in good company, for it blended well with Jeto's Montagnana cello. At last the devotion to craftsmanship that went into the making of Guarnieri and Stradivari is being applied to pianos."

Baller and the Bosendorfer and Rejto and his Montagnana cello, will present the program under the sponsorship of the Palm Springs Music Society. Tickets are available at the Society office at Santos Catering in the Center.

Officials Check Cause of Nursing Home Tragedy

WARRENTON, Mo. (AP) — Police officials today investigated three possible causes, including arson, at a flash fire that roared through a nursing home here, killing 71 persons.

Volunteer workers, who removed 43 charred bodies from the ruins of the collapsed Katie Jane Memorial Home, continued their careful search of the debris for their missing victims.

None of the bodies has been identified and Dr. F. H. Knigge, Warren County coroner, said he doubted if any would because the intense heat of the Sunday afternoon holocaust left little more than ashes.

Knigge said he believed the official list of 71 missing presumed dead was complete.

Lana Turner, Lex Barker Separate

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Film star Lana Turner, Hollywood's original sweetheart girl, revealed today that she has separated from her fourth husband, Lex Barker, the former movie Tarzan.

The screen beauty said Barker moved out of their house into a hotel Sunday and that she plans to see an attorney as soon as possible about getting a divorce.

Speeding Drivers Drive Selves to Death'—CHP Says

Drivers who speed are driving themselves to death says the California Highway Patrol.

"With more and more speed being built into motor vehicles, fatal accidents involving excessive speed are increasing in number," stated Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "This is evidenced by a 24 per cent increase in fatal run off the roadway type of accidents and an overall increase of 12 per cent in fatal accidents involving excessive speed."

Speed is the chief contributing factor in about one-third of all traffic accidents and nearly 44 per cent of all fatal traffic accidents," Caldwell declared. "A more realistic approach by drivers to the hazards of excessive speed is necessary."

"The speed available in today's cars can kill if used imprudently," the commissioner concluded. "The smart driver uses speed well, never beyond the safe limits and always within the stated or posted limits."

Rice Says No Need in Desert For Substation

Sheriff Joe W. Rice told County supervisors this week that there is not sufficient population in the Cathedral City-Desert Hot Springs area to justify establishment of a substation there. He said that four additional deputies in the Banning substation working as resident deputies in the desert area could do an adequate job of law enforcement.

"If the unprecedented growth in the area continues," said the sheriff, "it will no doubt become necessary to establish a substation there in the next few years." He said he will request the additional manpower in his next fiscal year's budget.

RICE SAID HIS recommendation was made as the result of a survey promoted by a request to the board from the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce on Jan. 7 for installation of a sheriff's substation.

The supervisors asked the administrative officer to place the sheriff's recommendation in his budget file.

City to Check Regulation of Paper Sign Use

Members of the City Council indicated yesterday that they would have the administration check in to the controlling of sale signs on store windows within the city.

The merchants association appeared at the last council meeting and presented a resolution, passed by that body, declaring that the use of paper "sale" signs was becoming evident in the village, and that it was beginning to leave an unfavorable impression on visitors here.

Under the provisions of the sign ordinance, a specific number of feet of sign space can be used by merchants, dependent upon the number of front footage that the store has. In the one case in question, the store owner was using a good deal less space than allowed.

The change in the statute may involve permit charges for paper signs and they may be rated at many times the footage space taken up by the sign.

The city administration will submit a recommendation to the council at the next meeting.

Traffic Stops As Mannequins Come to Life

At exactly seven o'clock last Friday, traffic was snarled, the Greyhound bus stopped to see the fun and the sidewalk was packed.

It was all because the mannequins in Edith's Sun and Sand Fashions caught the magic spell of Palm Springs and came to life, to show 35 completely new stunning spring fashions as they tangoed, square danced and frolicked about having the time of their lives, while giving the spectators a really different and interesting fashion show.

Rumor has it that every Friday at 7 p. m. Edith's mannequins will come to life to give a fantastic style show in her display windows at 745 North Palm Canyon Drive.

"Old Peppersass"

MT. WASHINGTON, N.H. (AP)—The cog railway which runs to the top of Mt. Washington — highest peak in the northeast — had an early beginning. The first locomotive ascended to the summit in 1869. It was called "Old Peppersass" because its upright boiler resembled a peppersass bottle. The ancient locomotive is displayed at the base station of the railway.

Determined Fisherman

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A resort owner at Lake Havasu reported better fishing as a result of brush shelters he put in the water along the shoreline. He said there is a black crappie nest every three or four feet along the entire brush patch. Shore fishing for bluegills and largemouth bass also has improved.

George Strebe Reported Doing 'Wonderfully Well'

George L. Strebe, owner of the Doll House, who was injured in an automobile accident last April, is reported "doing wonderfully well," and this week took off from his hide-away near Big Bear to go to Arizona.

Visiting with friends near Kingman, Strebe is reported to be in excellent health, "and for the first time in many years really enjoying life."

DOCTORS HAVE warned him that he must not get emotionally excited, and are keeping him under close observation, and are very satisfied over the progress Strebe has made in the 10 months, since his accident.

The night club owner suffered a bad head injury when he lost control of his automobile just south of Cathedral City late in April of 1956.

Strebe will not return to the Doll House, "at least not until next fall," said a member of the family, "for his main direction is to take it easy — and that he's going to do."

IT IS REPORTED that Strebe remembers nothing of the circumstances that led to the crash of his automobile and long hospitalization and recuperation that followed.

Members of his family are almost constantly at his side, and he spends his time working with his hands, fishing, swimming, and in complete relaxation.

Consolidation of Desert Building Offices Urged, Palm Desert Center

A request by C. G. Bixel, chief building inspector, for authorization to do away with the three offices he now has in the Coachella Valley and to consolidate with one office in Palm Desert, and also to be allowed an additional man to head the new office under the title of senior general inspector with a salary ranging from a beginning $360 to a top in five years of $430 per month, was referred by the board of supervisors this week to the administrative officer and personnel director for study.

Bixel said he now has offices in Cathedral City, Indio and Desert Hot Springs, with two men in Cathedral City, and one each in Indio and Desert Hot Springs.

HE SAID IT IS obviously impossible to keep the offices open and the men out on inspection work at the same time, and that when the offices are open to serve the people, the inspection time is reduced below that required to make proper inspections.

By consolidating into one office with a head man in addition to the present four-man crew, Bixel said he can keep the office open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily and keep up with outside inspection work. He said he has a man in his department who has the qualifications for the new position of senior general inspector.

"It is something a lot of thought should be given to," declared Administrative Officer Clay Begole.

"THE OFFICE WOULD be quite a distance from Indio and Desert Hot Springs," said Supervisor Paul Anderson.

"The distance would be far," agreed Supervisor George Berkey, "but that might be solved by use of the telephone. It is a matter of proper communications."

Bixel proposed rental of office space in a new building at 73-965 Highway 111 in Palm Desert for a rental on a two-year lease of $125 per month. He said the county health department is considering an office in the same building.

Stanley to Show Shoe Collection At Robinson's

Mr. "Couture Footwear" Stanley, one of the noted shoe designers of the day, will make his annual visit to Palm Springs Friday and Saturday, showing his entire collection at J. W. Robinson's.

The display includes the highly rated sharp-pointed pump which he makes both in America and in his Italian factory in Bologna. He also will show a new silhouette sans back, a sort of half pump, half mule shoe that's made to cling to the arch of the foot with a spring-a-lator construction.

This designer sponsors many delicately strapped open sandals believing strongly in their continued style importance. All his heels are thin to thinner but have a new built-in durability that all women welcome.

Throughout the Southland Stanley's creations are shown exclusively at the J. W. Robinson Stores.

Idyllwild Fire Board Appointed

County Counsel was instructed by the board of supervisors this week to prepare a resolution appointing Jay W. Gifford to a new three-year term on the Idyllwild Fire Protection District board, and Hugh B. Greer to complete the remaining one-year of the term of Michael Dunn who has resigned.

Because there was only one nomination filed for each opening, no election will be held.
